How Positive Affirmations For The New Mom Can Help You

Isn't it great to know you are doing everything perfectly as a new mom and have complete self confidence in your skills and abilities? What?? You mean you have doubts? You sometimes feel afraid you're doing it wrong? Maybe even sometimes feel (gulp) inadequate?!

Well, it may come as a surprise to you, but that is reality for most new moms, and it's perfectly normal to feel that way at times. After all, no matter how many baby instruction books are out there, not one teaches you how to do everything right in every situation.

So, now that you recognize and accept that you are a normal human being, how do you go about feeling confident and accepting of yourself at the same time? One tool you can use on a regular basis as an aid to feel more confident and loving toward yourself is positive affirmations.

Positive affirmations are a wonderful way to help you overcome fear, boost confidence, and develop a mindset of positivity. Affirmations are quite simply positive statements or declarations. You can use these positive statements to help shift your thoughts and emotions to a more positive place so you feel more confident, happy, secure, healthy, or anything else you're trying to accomplish.

Using affirmations on a regular basis is a powerful technique for change. Your subconscious mind does not recognize the difference between an actual experience and a positive or negative thought, so you have the opportunity to re-program your subconscious mind and remove negative or limiting beliefs using positive affirmations. Some suggestions for how to use them are:

- ❖ Repeat them often. Using positive affirmations repetitively will embed them into your subconscious mind
- ❖ Be passionate as you say your affirmations, and feel the emotion as if you have already accomplished the affirmation
- ❖ Believe in your affirmation and anticipate the success

To be most effective, you should perform your affirmations immediately upon waking and just before you drift off to sleep.

I hope you enjoy and benefit from these positive affirmations for the new mom!

With love,

Laura
